One day a lion was asleep and a little mouse ran over the lion's back. The lion woke up and put his foot on the mouse. He opened his mouth and wanted to eat the mouse. "Oh, king," cried the mouse "I am so sorry! I will never climb on you again! Maybe one day I will also help you." The lion laughed at the silly mouse but he still let him go.

One week later, hunters caught the lion with a net made of thick rope. They tied him up into a tree. The little mouse heard the lion roar. He ran to the tree and climbed up to the trap.
